Paul Hill is the Executive Vice President of Operations with The BVA Group LLC ("BVA"). As Executive Vice President of Operations, Mr. Hill is responsible for overseeing the firm's personnel, finance and accounting, and information technology functions as well as participating on the firm's Executive Committee.

Mr. Hill has a diverse background in valuation and commercial litigation assignments. Projects have ranged from economic damages and lost profits, such as a quick turn-around $6B loss profit litigation engagement to dozens of business valuations and complex financial analysis for a variety of purposes including consulting on domestic and international transactions, gift and estate tax, income tax, financial reporting and employee stock ownership plans.

Before joining BVA, Mr. Hill had a diverse industry experience primarily within a large multinational corporation. Industry responsibilities included accountability for a $100M+ profit pool beating both short and long-term profit targets; corporate strategy and analysis for global products representing over $7B in system revenues, foreign exchange trading with a $1B portfolio over delivering annual plan by $120M; financial reporting and planning for a $1.5B division; leading IT system implementations and general business and operations analysis for new products, manufacturing, distribution and company acquisitions targets.

Mr. Hill started his career with the valuation group of Ernst & Young LLP and received a Bachelor of Business Administration in Finance from The University of Texas.
